

Are you making choices
about your future?

Stratford-upon-Avon
College

Are you interested in a career in performing arts?

BTEC HIGHER NATIONAL DIPLOMA
IN PERFORMING ARTS
MUSICAL THEATRE

Are you passionate about musical theatre?

STOP PRESS!

The College has successfully secured additional HEFCE funding and we are delighted to be able to offer...

BTEC LEVEL 5 HIGHER NATIONAL DIPLOMA IN PERFORMING ARTS - MUSICAL THEATRE

The Higher National Diploma (HND) in Performing Arts - Musical Theatre is designed to develop the skills and knowledge that will eventually allow you to either continue in higher education or to find employment.

Who is the Course For?

This programme is primarily for those wishing to develop their range of skills in musical theatre and who wish to explore the variety of opportunities available.

What the Course Will Cover

In your first year, you will develop your existing performance skills through technique classes in voice and singing, dance and acting, with supporting studies exploring the historical and cultural background to the art of musical theatre.

In your second year, you will continue to build on these foundations whilst experimenting with the traditions of performance practice.

Fees

For course fees and support available to you, please go to the following site for further information:
www.offa.org.uk/?find-access=stratford

Entry Requirements

- 18+ years old
 - GCSE English at grade C or above
 - Portfolio OR audition
- and
- 200 UCAS tariff points

You will be expected to attend an interview.

Field Trips/Visits

You will be expected to visit as many live performances as possible and take advantage of the offers from our local theatres, The Royal Shakespeare Theatre and Birmingham Hippodrome.

