1. Scope

This policy applies to all Solihull College and University Centre sub-contracted provision for education and training financed using the Education and Skills Funding Agency (ESFA) funds. Solihull College and University Centre recognises the importance of building effective supply chain relationships to deliver excellent learner outcomes and develops that relationship within a partnership context.

2. Context

This policy is now a mandatory requirement of the ESFA, as stated in the Funding Rules 2018 - 2019. This policy supersedes all previous versions, where applicable, and is effective from 1st August 2018.

The content of this policy has been developed in line with the ESFA Funding Rules and two documents, namely the 'Common Accord' and the 'Supply Chain Management: a good practice for the post 16 sector'.

3. Improving

In accordance with the Common Accord, and the Overarching Principle, Solihull College and University Centre will seek to use its supply chains to optimise the impact and effectiveness of service delivery to the end user. Solihull College and University Centre will therefore ensure that:

- Supply chain management activities align with the principles of best practice in the skills sector. Accordingly, they will be guided by the principles given in the LSIS publication 'Supply Chain Management – a good practice guide for the post-16 skills sector' (21 Jan 2013 and subsequent iterations);
- Solihull College and University Centre will at all times undertake fair and transparent procurement activities, conducting robust due diligence procedures on potential sub-contractors to ensure compliance with the Common Accord at all levels and ensure the highest quality of learning delivery is made available, demonstrating value for money and a positive impact on learner lives.
- The funding for learning that is retained by Solihull College and University Centre will be related to the costs of Solihull College and University Centre. These costs, and the levels of funding being retained for them, will be clearly documented and agreed by all parties. The rates of such retained funding will be commercially viable for both sides and will be negotiated and agreed in a fair and transparent manner, and will relate to the actual costs incurred being provided.
- Where disputes between supply chain partners cannot be resolved through mutually agreed internal resolution procedures, Solihull College and University Centre will submit the dispute to independent outside arbitration or mediation and abide by its findings. Contract documents will require both parties to agree that the achievements of supply chains are attained through adherence to both the letter and spirit of contracts or partnerships. Signatories therefore commit that all discussions, communications, negotiations and actions undertaken to build, maintain and develop supply chains will be conducted in good faith in accordance with the Overarching Principle.
